Proclamation

Registered Professional Planners Day

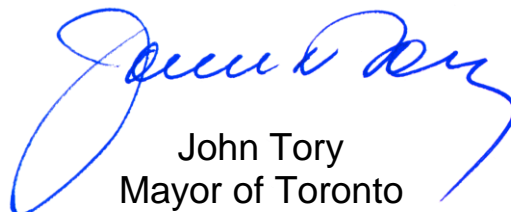

October 1, 2019

WHEREAS registered professional planners are the experts and professionals who have been educated to inform and ethically guide the choices made by elected officials in building communities in Toronto and Ontario. This year marks the 25th anniversary of the Registered Professional Planner designation (RPP).

Planners have been involved in significant land use projects in Toronto including the redevelopment of the waterfront, the creation of public spaces such as Yonge-Dundas Square, and the creation of neighbourhoods including Liberty Village, City Place, and Quayside.

The City of Toronto recognizes the contributions of organizations and groups in making Toronto a great city in which to live, work and play. The dedication and hard work of many enrich the lives of Torontonians daily and make our city stronger, safer, vibrant and healthy.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Mayor John Tory, on behalf of Toronto City Council, do hereby proclaim October 1, 2019 as "Registered Professional Planners Day" in the City of Toronto.

John Tory
Mayor of Toronto
